Alberta Invasive Species Council's 2022 AGM and Conference

The Alberta Invasive Species Council (AISC) is excited to host their annual conference and AGM from March 14-18, 2022! This five-day virtual event will bring together expert field practitioners, municipal and provincial governments, undergrad and masters students, leading researchers and scientists, and anyone working with invasive species to listen, network and share their knowledge about invasive species.

Sessions will include a variety of invasive species topics and duration is estimated to be between 3-4 hours per day, with an afternoon session on Wednesday, March 16th for a special EDDMapS Pro training from 12:30-3:30PM. Additionally, certified pesticide applicator credits will be offered during the AISC conference – to receive applicator credits, attendance for a minimum of 60 minutes and participation during session quizzes is mandatory.

Register for this event before March 12, 2022 at www.eventbrite.ca/e/2022-alberta-invasive-species-council-aisc-virtual-conference-and-agm-tickets-243856911587. A Zoom link will be sent out to all registrants shortly before the conference. Everyone is welcome to join!
